

Donald (Don) David

Donald (Don) David, 87, of Brookhaven Hamlet, died March 19, 2017. Mr. David worked as a technician at Brookhaven National Laboratory for over 30 years. He attended Farmingdale College, and was an army veteran, serving in Germany during the Korean War. Mr. David was an avid gardener, entertainer, mountain climber, and traveler. He was a member of Mary Immaculate Church in Bellport. He and his wife, Genie, were active members of the Friendship Force of Long Island. He visited 50 states in the United States and spent time on seven continents. Mr. David had a passion for classical music and opera. He was also an avid dog lover.

He is survived by his children, Darcy Mallon, Mary and husband, Rick Keever, Susan David and husband, Mike McGovern; his siblings, Marguerite David, Dan David, Bill David, and Susan Patello; his grandchildren, Christen, Kelsey and Derek Fry, Forrest and Amber Mallon, and Theo and Cordelia McGovern; and his former son-in-law, Lex Mallon. He was predeceased by his brothers Bob David and Dick David, and his son-in-law, Kevin Fry.

