

2016 DOE Mile Race

Thank you for participating

Eight Department of Energy (DOE) laboratories and 602 people ran in the inaugural DOE Mile on October 4. Each participating lab held a mile walk/run on their campus and the results were merged to determine overall standings. Sandia California emerged as the overall winner in all categories: participation (highest percentage of workforce participating); the fastest male and female runners; and the male and female team titles.

DOE Mile Race Recap

Read more »

DOE Mile Race Results

Rankings, Stats, and Photo Gallery »

NNSA Blog

DOE Lab Staff Go the Extra Mile »

HBE services are provided by Sandia National Laboratories.
Support is available to Sandia National Laboratories' employees

© 2016 Sandia Corporation

Disclaimer | Privacy & Security